second class mail matter

A good many spring poems are still in cold storage.

Humbol', Iowa, and Holden, Missouri, seem to be the great producers of wrestlers.

Does anybody know just how Mr. Taft feels in regard to this tariff business?

A trolley line to Odessa and river steamers making regular stops here would help somewhat.

Our Congressman C. W. Hamlin made one of the best tariff speeches of the present session.

Governor Hadley is showing his appreciation of the good work the breweries of St. Louis did for him.

The honey bees have evidently decided that warm weather is not coming and have begun work anyhow.

It is still not too warm for us to speak about wanting to be out of doors with some degree of boastfulness.

You may be able to wear that light suit before June; but there is no immediate need of having it pressed.

The automobile fever is said to have lodged in the constitutions of several prominent Lexingtonians. Let them come on.

And, by the way, we are glad that it is Mr. Dickey and not Mr. Tebeau that is at the head of the "Navigate the Missouri" project.

That severe storm ought to have hit some place else. Nobody around here broke into print with a poem beginning, "Hail, gentle Spring."

And we of Lexington will probably soon have a chance to vote wet or dry after all in spite of the indefatigable work of our Representative Branch.

Caruso has gone back to Italy to let his voice rest. There was a good deal of public sympathy for him until it became known that his vocal organs were impaired by his singing for phonographs.

Prof. George Tebeau usually gets together in Kansas City a fair bunch at the beginning of the season and has them win a few games to arouse interest before he lets go of those that receive good salaries. This year, however, he is trying to get along without even his customary beginning plunge.

A few years ago prohibition would have been an impossible issue in Missouri. Now it seems probable that the people of the state will vote on the question of statewide prohibition at the next election and that the measure will carry. Why has come about this change of feeling? Some say it is due to the growing moral sentiment of the people, some to the activity of women, some to the work of ministers, but really it seems to be due to the short-sighted, brutal and inhuman policy of the big breweries. Just on the question of liquor or no liquor the state would remain wet. It is generally believed that a man should have the right to take a drink if he wants it. But the liquor interests are too pernicious in politics and many people now think prohibition the only means of getting away from brewery domination. This is not a party measure. It is merely a move against corrupt bossism.

CORDER ITEMS.

The debating society adjourned several weeks ago on account of the warm weather and the lack of attendance to take up the society next fall.

Louis Barley is in Morrville this week visiting his son, Hunter, who is attending school at that place.

Misses Lola Fräzler and Rachel Andreea of Lexington spent Easter with friends and relatives in and near Corder. They returned home Sunday evening.

Wm. Wilson was in Blackburn Tuesday.

The management of the skating rink has decided to leave Corder at present.

H. Wechambrook shipped cattle to St. Louis Tuesday.

Rev. Squires filled his regular appointment at Blackburn Easter Sunday.

A male quartet has been organized here and they aided very much in the singing at the Easter program Sunday night. The voices are as follows: Thos. D. Bowman 2nd tenor, Robt. Frerking 1st tenor, Arthur Frerking baritone and Julius Frerking basso.

A ball team was organized last Monday night for the season of 1909.
Corder has always held her own in the baseball line and intends to do so in the future.

Mrs. D. G. Jackson was in Higgins-ville this week on account of the sickness of relatives.

Henry Meyers sold his household goods at public auction last Saturday at his home east of town. A large crowd was present and Col.
Wilson sold things as well as could be expected. Mr. Meyers and wife will leave soon for Kansas City where they will make their future home.
We are sorry to have them leave Corder.

A large number of people have been on the sick list this week.

Misses Annie and Ethel Barley, who are attending high school in Marshall spent Easter with their parents, Hunter Barley and wife, of North of Corder.

Miss Elizabeth Wilson of Rosedale, Kans., spent the holidays of last week with her parents in Corder and returned to that place Sunday evening.

On account of lack of patronage the Lotus Male quartet of Odessa did not fill the date here Friday night.

Miss Hannah Groves returned home from Keytesville, Mo., where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs.
Parks, for the last four weeks.

Miss Mary Barley from Central college of Lexington arrived here Friday to spend the holidays with her parents, Louis Barley and wife.

E. S. Willis spent last week in Saline county. He was accompanied by his brother, Claud, of Higginsville.

Dale Wilson was unable to attend school last week on account of a severe attack of grip.

Joseph Jones and family moved in the house formerly occupied by C. A.
Benton on North Main street Tuesday.

C. L. Wilson left Monday evening for Vota, Colorado, where he will visit his brother.

An excellent Easter program entitled "The Children of All Nations" was rendered last Sunday night at the M. E. church, South, by the girls of "The Golden Link." A silver offering was given at the door and a full house was in attendance. The program lasted about two hours and was enjoyed by all. The collection, after expenses were paid, amounted to $10 and went to the foreign missionary cause.

Those taking part in the play to be given by the Christian church have decided to render it Friday night, April 23.

PISO'S

PROTECT YOUR LUNGS

If every cough you catch settles on your lungs, you have weak lungs. Don't let the cough hang on. A "hang-on" cough is dangerous to strong lungs—doubly so to weak ones. Get rid of it in the beginning with PISO'S CURE. It acts promptly and effectively; allays the irritation, reduces the congestion, frees the throat of phlegm, clears the clogged air passages and stops the cough. For nearly half a century the unsurpassed remedy for the worst forms of coughs, colds and chest complaints has been
